About This Plan

The Captiva is a beautiful single-story home that will exceed all of your expectations! From the moment you step into the wide, airy foyer with elegant tray ceiling detail, you will be able to feel the depth and dimension of this home. From the front door, you can see all the way through to the backyard, especially with all of the natural light coming in through the large rear windows. At the front of the home, you will find a spacious bedroom, a convenient full bath, a linen closet, a large laundry room and a mud room with access to the two-car garage. This section of the home is ideal, as the bedroom is tucked away from the main living space, adding a level of privacy. You also have the ability to convert this bedroom into a home office with double doors. Past the grand dining room and down a short hall is
