About This Plan

Of course you want a house that's practical and fits your lifestyle -- who wouldn't? You don't want fuss, but you wouldn't say no to a little luxury. And you want your friends and family to have as much luxury and beauty around them as you do. If that sounds like you, then the Bridgewater is your home. As you enter the foyer, the open space draws you into the formal dining room, perfect for entertaining. Past the central stair, the rear of the home is open and inviting, featuring a gourmet kitchen with a walk-in pantry and huge eat-at island, open to the warm and inviting family room. Don't forget to add the fireplace for cozy evenings at home. The dinette provides room for informal dining and opens onto an optional covered porch that brings the outdoors in. Off the garage a convenient and
