

Base Price

$490,990

3 Beds | 2 Baths | 1 Half Bath | 2 Garage

About This Plan

If you're looking for modern, elegant townhome living, then The Arcadia is right up your alley! When you walk into this home, you enter into a spacious recreation room with storage and an optional half or full bath. This room is a perfect secondary entertaining space, and its large front windows allow for lots of natural light. You also have the ability to personalize this home by converting this area into a fourth bedroom. The main level of this home is completely open concept, with the great room, dining room and kitchen forming one expansive, beautiful space. You will have your choice of a center or rear kitchen, but whichever you choose, it will rival those of professional chefs. You will love its oversized center island with built-in breakfast bar, stainless steel appliances, granite

About This Community

If you're looking for modern, elegant townhome living, then The Arcadia is right up your alley! When you walk into this home, you enter into a spacious recreation room with storage and an optional half or full bath. This room is a perfect secondary entertaining space, and its large front windows allow for lots of natural light. You also have the ability to personalize this home by converting this area into a fourth bedroom. The main level of this home is completely open concept, with the great room, dining room and kitchen forming one expansive, beautiful space. You will have your choice of a center or rear kitchen, but whichever you choose, it will rival those of professional chefs. You will love its oversized center island with built-in breakfast bar, stainless steel appliances, granite