About This House

The Rowan remains one of our most popular floor plans, because it offers today's must-haves, plus lots of luxuries built into its design. Upon entering the home, you'll be wowed by the elegance of the two-story foyer and then you'll discover a formal dining space - perfect for entertaining. As you venture into the heart of the home, you'll be delighted with the bright and airy open-concept layout which provides the family with an attractive core living space. This signature living triangle features a family room with a fireplace, gourmet kitchen with a large serving island and breakfast area. Additionally, the main floor also offers a study, family foyer and powder room.
