About This Plan

The largest of our Brightwell Crossing portfolio of homes, the Potomac is like the river it was named for, flowing and dramatic. Our designer looked beyond traditional parameters to add excitement to this home. Starting with the courtyard entrance in the front, it is evident this home was created with flair. Inside the Potomac, the floor plan radiates from a dramatic, circular gallery that makes it clear this is not the usual home design. Punctuated by open spaces, large rooms, ample storage, and a grand kitchen, the first floor has generous, open flow from room to room. On the second floor, you will enjoy an Owners' Suite with fireplace, Sitting Room and spa bath - or utilize some of the expansive area for an even larger walk-in closet. Three more bedrooms and two more baths surround the central
