The Normandy is the perfect choice for those seeking a spacious living environment and luxurious features. The first thing you see when you step through the door is the light and airy foyer opening to the second floor. The centerpiece of the home is undoubtedly the kitchen. The large island adds a true wow factor, plus there's plenty of room for entertaining! Service cabinets to the side of the fridge make a great butler's pantry where you can stage food. Best of all, the living area's design allows for easy flow between the kitchen and other rooms. You can cook and still be a part of every conversation! Right off the kitchen, you'll find the convenient service wing with its garage entry area. A huge storage closet and an optional arrival center provide more than enough room to
