For a twin home that offers style and space, but never sacrifices convenience and comfort, look no further than the Calvert at Big Elk. As soon as you enter the foyer you'll know you've arrived. A cozy nook shelters an eat-in kitchen, full-sized laundry room, and convenient powder room. Ahead lies a light-filled open-concept floorplan that features a dining room that flows into the great room and never feels closed off. A wall of windows and a door on the back wall makes the home feel open and airy. The owner's bedroom is off of the main living space, conveniently located but separated from the living area by an ante space. Entering the owner's bedroom is like entering your own private spa retreat from the day to the owner's bath, with its double vanity and shower with seat. A huge
