$949,990 4 Beds | 3 Baths | 1 Half Bath | 2 Garage

Luxury without compromise. It's a pretty simple concept, but it's not something you find every day. That's why it's so nice to find that the Marymount delivers the home plan you want with all the beauty and craftsmanship you'd hoped for. As you walk into the foyer you're greeted by light-filled spaces that feel welcoming but never stuffy. To one side is the dining room, perfect for formal gatherings. To the other a flex room to make your own, whether it's a living room, music room -- even add glass double doors and built-in book cases to make it a library. As you move through the home your eye is drawn back to the open, airy feel of the more informal living in the rear of the home. Past a switch back stair a gourmet kitchen with an oversized infinity island acts as the command center of the home, giving
