About This Community

A former George Washington family plantation in the Harper's Ferry District is now a signature gated community in an exquisite natural oasis. Often sited as the "best place to retire in the D.C. region," residents enjoy lower West Virginia taxes plus superior values on real estate, all within a 25-mile radius of every conceivable amenity and direct access to D.C. on the nearby MARC train. Available lifestyle amenities: First floor owner's suites; two-car garages; gourmet kitchens; one-level living; Yard Maintenance Program (no more mowing, raking, or shoveling); historic Washington estate home; future clubhouse and swimming pools; convenient retail within minutes.
