About This Community

MEADOWBROOK FARM, one of Van Metre's single family home neighborhoods that reflects the comfort and charm of small-town America, is a community of 400 single family homes—but only a couple of homes remain. The homes in this award-winning community are inspired by the architectural legacy of rural Virginia and interspersed with the modern lifestyle and healthy living amenities that your family needs—including a pool and pool house, open green spaces with access to trails, sidewalks, and multiple parks. Come discover the neighborhood where you can put down roots, raise a family, and build lasting relationships. Meadowbrook Farm is just minutes from the shops, restaurants, galleries, nightspots, and the centuries-refined elegance of Historic Downtown Leesburg. The HOA fee at Meadowbrook Farm is $80.00.
