About This Community

You want a lot out of a home, and Arlington Row can give you just that. These new townhomes will let you live in the place and in the way you truly want. You can enjoy distinctive townhomes designed for contemporary, elegant living close to Arlington's shopping, dining, and entertainment scene.

At Arlington Row, you can have a lower-maintenance home but still have a front door that opens to a charming street. You can be within steps of places to shop and dine and yet still have a spacious home to return to. You can even enjoy the classic look of a brick exterior while having all-new, fully modern finishes inside.

Imagine the feel of stepping into a home that is so new it doesn't need any work and so well designed you can host guests whenever you want or give the kids their own rooms. You'll love lounging in the light-filled living area and relaxing in your owner's suite with its soothing bathroom and walk-in closet big enough to store your work clothes, your traveling clothes and your going-out-on-the town clothes. Plus, you'll have a garage to make life that much more convenient.

Arlington Row is one of the absolute best townhome opportunities in Arlington. Don't miss your chance to own one of the few homes we'll offer here.
